

Leaving a gift in your Will is a valuable and lasting way of supporting the ongoing work of the Bush Children's Education Foundation (BCEF).

It can be quite a simple matter to include a gift to the BCEF in your Will or, if you do not wish to rewrite your existing Will, in a Codicil to your Will.

The following are examples of specific wording recommended for leaving a gift in your Will to BCEF. In all cases we encourage you to discuss your Will or Codicil with your legal advisor.

Example 1 - To donate a percentage of your estate:

"I give to Bush Children's Education Foundation of NSW Inc., free of all duties, % of my residuary estate and I confirm that the receipt of the treasurer, secretary or other proper officer shall be a sufficient discharge for my executor."

or:

Example 2 - To donate a specific sum:

"I give to Bush Children's Education Foundation of NSW Inc., free of all duties, the sum of $..... and I confirm that the receipt of the treasurer, secretary or other proper officer shall be a sufficient discharge for my executor."

Thank you for your consideration. We would really appreciate your gift.
