

BCEF Privacy Statement

BCEF is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of our clients and supporters.

It is acknowledged that BCEF will collect personal information in respect of applicants for scholarships and bursaries. BCEF will only use such personal information for its purposes and will not provide any such information to other persons or corporations or publish any such personal information (including named or otherwise readily identifiable photographs of any such person) without the consent of that person (if an adult) or the consent of the parent or guardian or other adult person having the custody or care of that person (if a child).
